IN MEMORIAM:
In sad but loving memory of our dear Mother, Mrs. C. C. Ferguson, who departed this life three years ago, Nov. 5, 1948.
Today we are thinking of someone Dear, who was so kind and true.
Whose smile was as dear as the Sunshine, Dear Mother that someone is you.
Memories are treasures no one can steal. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. For days and nights she bore her pain. To wait for cure but all in vain.
We smile through our tears,
And so forget to weep,
Knowing our loved one has left us for awhile, only to find the blessed peace of sleep.
—Sadly missed by her children.

Mrs. Charlie McFadden.

KIDS WILL BE KIDS
BUT I'M PROTECTED

"I never thought much about how much I'm liable for my children until the other evening when an ambulance and police car came a few houses away with the sirens shrieking.

"It was something that any normal youngster might do—toss a rock in play—but it injured a child . . . and over the back fence I heard that somebody is going to pay plenty.

"It wasn't either of my youngsters but believe me, it didn't take me long to call 2641 and arrange with the J. W. Conner Insurance Agency for 'all around' liability insurance . . . covering my family and property and even our pets."

It costs so little to forget about the financial worries involved in personal, property or auto casualties or liability—why not call 2641 or stop in and see J. W. Conner.

Carver High School

Readers, we scribes are here for the week's tally of activities at Carver.

No school on Friday. Our principal, Mr. J. T. Butler, Mr. James Clay, and our Supervisor, Mrs. Mozella J. Price, left Wednesday for The Virginia Teachers' Meeting in Richmond. Friday, our other teachers leave.

Annabelle Robinson, Warren Jones, and Lillie Mae Lewis are busy working on their speeches for the Oratorical Contest sponsored by the Omega Fraternity, to be held in Lynchburg November 14. The topic is "Securing World Peace by Strengthing Democracy."

The student body is glad to have Allen, Sarah and Norrald Watkins back with them. We are also glad to see Margaret Madison in school after her illness. Mazie Hubbard and Rudolph Robinson have returned too, we're happy to report.

The Juniors are studying F'plations in English and find it quite interesting. They are on their sewing unit in Home Economics. The majority of the girls are going to make jumpers, weskits, or skirts. Jacqueline Lawing and Rachel Pankey have some beautiful woolen material. Like to see them when they are completed.

We hear the tenth graders were planning to make 'O's' on their report cards. Wonder what they really got?

An effort is being made in this homeroom to make students more alert in their classes and do better work. They are progressing, they tell us.

The ninth grade girls are learning Kick Ball in Physical Ed. class. Some of those girls now know what that foot can be used for.

We wonder who Barbara Hubbard's and Virginia Hubbard's dream boys are. Wonder if it is who we think?

Last Friday the New Farmers of America held an assembly program for the observance of conservation week. Reports were given on conservation and what it means to the farmer. County Agent G. L. James spoke on conservation work being done in the county and showed slides of conservation practices carried on at different county farms.

The new N. F. A. officers and members are learning quickly, and are taking over where the old members who have graduated left.

The Seniors trip to Virginia State is Saturday. They will tour the school with guides showing them all the buildings. They will attend a football game and an evening program at the school.

Didn't Hiawatha Johnson sing in assembly Friday. He's another Perry Como.

The tenth graders begin sewing next week. This term they will sew on woolens. It was cottons last term.

The news for the week is all in! We close our column with the thought: "To err is human, to forgive divine."

The local Hallowe'en Festival is sponsored annually by the P.-T. A.

Time for a visit to our Station for that Fall Oil Change and Grease Job!
We have the tops in equipment And our service stands the test!
Let us wash your car today! Good idea to have us check the battery and radiator now!

The Ideal Spiritual Singers, of Kenbridge, Va., will render a program at the Jordan Baptist Church Nov. 14, at 8:00 P. M. The public is invited.

The Carver Chapter of New Farmers of America celebrated Conservation Week in the chapel of the Carver High School Friday before the entire student body. The following program was given: Music, by the audience; devotionals by Claude Lambert; aims and purposes of the program, Algie Williams; conservation week in Appomattox, Donald Hart; soil conservation practices, Wilston Jones; methods of controlling conservation, Willie Braxton; solo, Trees, Hiawatha Johnson;some conservation practices among farmers in Appomattox, by county agent G. L. James; announcements, Principal J. T. Butler; closing remarks by chapter. At the end of the program information was given that had been prepared on conservation practices among farmers in this area under the direction of professor J. A. Walker.

The public is invited to worship with Galilee Baptist Church at the regular preaching hour. Pastor Miss Ishmeral and Ila Mae Wade of Buckingham County had charge at his home.

Leon Lawing, of Virginia State College spent Sunday with his parents.

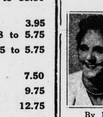
PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Corbett and Mrs. J. C. Tweedy, of Norfolk spent the week-end with Mr. Shafter Drinkard.

Mrs. Cecil Bailey and son, Tommie, of Danville are spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Byron Cole. Mr. Bailey will spend the week-end here.



News Around Town

By Mrs. Calvin Robinson

This was sent in by a friend of mine, so I will share it with you: Little four-year old Peggy sat listening intently to her aunt, who was discussing the necessary things to be done around the home, if she only had the time. "Well, auntie," interrupted the little lass, "If you have the money, I have the time."

George F. Langran, who has been a patient in Blue Ridge Sanitorium for several years, will return to his home here Sunday. Welcome home, Sir! Mr. and Mrs. Langran are now making their home in the residence recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ned LeGrand. Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand have moved into their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. (Sam) Conner have announced the birth of a son, Don Edward, born Saturday, Oct. 27 at Va. Baptist Hospital.

Misses Penny and Peyton Abbitt celebrated their 11th birthday Saturday.

Henry M. Beard is a patient at Memorial Hospital, Lynchburg where he underwent an operation today.

Charles and Lloyd Wright, of Lynchburg visited Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Blackwell Saturday.

This is Girl Scout Week. The local girls are busy selling cookies to help finance their troop—so if a Girl Scout knocks at your door, buy cookies and help the cause.

I had the pleasure Sunday morning of attending services at St. Ann's Episcopal Church, at which time the Girl Scouts and Brownies gathered in a body. The Rev. Herbert N. Tucker, Jr., minister - in-charge, gave a most informative talk to the Scouts. He told how the organization originated. Juliette Gordon Low, Founder, met with a group of girls March 12, 1912, and the First Girl Scout Guide Company was organized. The first camp was held in Savannah, Ga. the next summer. In 1913 the name was changed to Girl Scouts and now there are over a million Girl Scouts in the U.S.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Drinkard have received a cablegram from their son, Pfc. Berk Drinkard saying that he has landed safely and is stationed at Stuttgart, Germany.

Sorry: Father Darkleaf tells me we are overcrowded for space this week and he is having to omit much copy—even including ads!

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Ransom, of Pamplin announce the engagement of their daughter, Annie Geraldine, to Raymond W. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Mitchell, of Appomattox. Miss Ransom is a graduate of Pamplin High School, and is now employed with the Appomattox Garment Co. Mr. Mitchell is a graduate of Appomattox High School. He is now employed with the Division of Motor Vehicles as Examiner.

The wedding will take place in the near future.

J. A. Bingham has returned home from the hospital.

Mrs. H. S. Gibson and sons, Mike and Kenny, of Camp LaJeunne, N. C., who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Drinkard for the past month, will return home Monday. Mrs. H. L. Bailey and son, Billy Mrs. Emma Stokes,Mrs. Margie Dinnen and son, Eddie, all of Pittsburgh, were week-end guests in this home. Other guests on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Wayne and daughter, Iney, of Pamplin; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin and sons, Sam and Charles, Mr. and Mrs. James Drinkard and son, David, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Derbin, all of Lynchburg.

Dr. and Mrs. V. W. Sears were called to Concord, N. C. yesterday, due to the death of Dr Sears' mother. Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at four o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Blackwell and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Chernault visited Miss Odelle Blackwell Sunday.

We regret having to omit many news items this week.

Pfc. Dan Lewis spent the week-end of October 21 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lewis.

Mrs. Mittie Harvey spent the week-end with Mrs. O. W. Martin.

Don't forget the Bloodmobile visit at Appomattox High School cafeteria, 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. November 17. Cards to fill out can be obtained at M.-W. Drinkard's store. Come on, let's have a big representation from Oakville!

Oakville, Oct. 30.- We are glad to know that Mrs. William Harvey is out again. She has been sick and her sister, Miss Mattie Moss has been with her.

Mrs. Etheleen Lewis, of Hartford, Conn. has returned to her home after visiting relatives in Virginia. She is a cousin of Mrs. J. W. Harris. While in Virginia Mrs. Lewis visited relatives in Appomattox, Lynchburg, Roanoke and Washington. She and Jean Marie Harris went to Natural Bridge, the Luray Caverns and Williamsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Harris and family and Mrs. Fleming Martin motored to Buggs Island Sunday.

We are sorry Mrs. J. W. Harris is on the sick list. Her friends are glad to know that she is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Martin, of "Fairview," their country home here, spent Tuesday in Lynchburg on business.

Oakville

Oakville, Oct. 31.- Who—who—who—says the Owl—who's afraid on Hallowe'en? Guess everyone had a nice time with all the parties and treats. You know Hallowe'en is more like it should be now than ever. It is a time for fun that will not make for unhappiness on the day after. Let's keep it that way.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Hillsman are the proud parents of twins, Wanda and Warren. They are at home now and getting on fine.Somebody must fix a name on their baskets so I can tell them apart.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hillsman and family have moved into their new home. Congratulations.
